

THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

7 July 1976

Mr. James Featherstone
319 South Pitt Street
Alexandria, Va. 22314

Dear Jim:

Thank you for your note on the occasion of my recent appointment. I will do the very best I can to make good on what will be a difficult assignment. I do feel that there are more opportunities than there are problems, however, and I look forward to the future.

Let's stay in touch, and by all means, come on by and help me deal with some of the issues.

All the best.

Faithfully yours,

E. H. Knoche
